Caroline Kearney Sings at the RUBA Club

On Saturday, May 11, 2013 at 8 p.m., Caroline Kearney, under the direction of Jason Neri and Kathy Graham, will debut her brand new cabaret, "Every Song I Sing Is My Favorite" at the RUBA Club, 416 Green Street, Philadelphia. (Just off the corner of 5th and Spring Garden. Behind Silk City.)

Culled from an original list of over 150 songs, this cabaret features some of Ms. Kearney's favorite songs from the Great American Songbook, musical theater and early American movie classics which will be framed by personal anecdotes.

Doors open at 7 p.m. with the performance beginning at 8 p.m. Admission is $20 and is open to the public. Children under the age of 18 must be accompanied by an adult. Tickets can be reserved at www.brownpapertickets.com, and include light fare, coffee and tea. There will also be a cash-only bar available.

With the re-emergence of piano bars, supper-style clubs and even Ortlieb's in Northern Liberties, the area is ready for a renaissance in this singular art form that combines the resonance, humor and poignancy of a one-man-show with beautifully captivating music.
